

Tradition of wine making II

Kovacica – Vrsac (200 km in total)
"Tradition of wine making turned into a way of life..."

Kovacica is well known for its ethnic Slovak community and naive painting tradition. The all area is beautiful, surrounded with the fields of sunflowers, which features a quaint central park and church. Every home of Kovacica is marked with a plate listing its owner and the year it was built.

Visit to the Naive painting Art gallery.

After the visit drive towards Vrsac.

Vrsac is well known for its high winds, scenic surroundings and beautiful vineyards. The city's most historical buildings date back to the 18th century. A few prominent examples include the baroque Bishop's Palace, the St. Nicholas Orthodox Church, the neo-gothic St. Gerhard Roman-Catholic Church, the Magistrate and the Jovan Sterija Popovic House. The City Museum is home to an extensive archeological collection from the Vatin, Dubovac and Zidovara sites.

Lunch in the restaurant and drive back to Belgrade.

Arrival in the late afternoon.
